Debit Card Security

Gunnison Savings and Loan engages security programs that monitor Debit Card customers' transactions. These security programs may restrict transactions from processing on your account. Risk scoring by transaction type, frequency and location help decide if fraudulent activity may be attempting to process. Our security helps prevent fraudulent transactions from processing in your account.

If suspicious activity is discovered and your Debit Card becomes restricted, GS&L personnel or other processor personnel will contact you to verify suspicious transactions. They will never ask you for personal information that can be compromised. They will never ask your entire Debit Card account number or your GS&L account number.
